

A black and white Halloween-themed sign. The sign has a decorative, multi-pointed border. Inside the border, there are four black spiders at the corners and two white spiders on the sides, each with a thin line representing a web strand. Two white spider webs are also positioned in the top-left and bottom-right corners of the sign's interior. The text "We've been BOO'd!" is written in a white, serif font, centered within the sign.
